Presidents message

Hello Guild Members,

The weather is changing and now is the time I often put away my small projects and start something larger. Nothing seems cozier than knitting away on an afghan that sits in your lap keeping you warm. But let's be real, the weather has not changed that much and I am still working on small projects because it's just too warm to be under an afghan mid day.

I am working on my auction yarn projects and having so much fun designing my own project. I am using all the information I got from our Barry Klein class to good use. I am excited to see what all of you have created!

Happy Crafting,

Mary

Mission: An hour a month for guild members to untangle from the weekday bustle; to unwind with kindred knit & crochet spirits.

Next event, February 17, 2024

Outreach - added info.

Riverside Health Services will also accept gently used baby items such as cribs and seats that have been cleaned to "look new" condition. This is great news to all you grandmas whose grands have outgrown the need for all your duplicate items you purchased for your home that have had very little use.

Upcoming EVENTS

SO CAL FIBER FAIR

Nov. 18th
& 19th

A brand-new fiber celebration coming to the Fairplex in Pomona, CA.
YARN, CONTESTS, FOOD & FUN!

This event is organized by Nancy Bates and her talented daughters. The Pomona Fairplex is in our own back yard and all members and fiber enthusiasts are urged to find some time during the weekend event to check it out and join the fun. Tickets can be pre-purchased on-line by visiting the SoCalFiber-Fair website or on site.

RKG membership has voted on participating in this inaugural event by having a "winding booth". Fairgoers can have their yarn purchased at the fair, wound at no cost at the RKG booth. A great way to make ourselves known to the SoCal community while having fun.

If you have not already signed up to wind yarn, contact Kim or Mary for available times. (Participation in the winding booth requires the purchase of a ticket for that day.) Carpooling is recommended.

Election and Holiday Party

Dec. 2nd

Our final meeting of the year is earmarked for the election of the 2024 officers.

After the brief meeting, our annual Holiday Party will commence. Hosted by Nicole L'Hommedieu and her elves, it promises to be fun for all with games and prizes. Send photos of your holiday knit and crochet projects to Nicole by November 28th so they can be shown at this zoom meeting.
